It is started in the letter that as a part of global restructuring plan, the Consumer Health Business including the portfolio of cosmetic products of M/s. Johnson & Johnson Private Limited in India has separated and demerged with effect from 2 January 2023, into a new legal entity under the name M/s. JNTL Consumer Health (India) Private Limited through a scheme of arrangement and demerger which was sanctioned by the Hon'ble NCLT (National Company Law Tribunal), Mumbai. It also intimated that they stopped importing any Cosmetics under the aforesaid Registration Certificate numbers since last one and half year. Further, a fresh Import Registration Certificate for the Cosmetics was already been granted to M/s. JNTL Consumer Health (India) Private Limited and henceforth will be imported by them.

The firm has mentioned that their last month of Import was between November and December 2022 and most of the batches will get expire by September & November 2025.

In view of the above and as per the request of the subject firm, the Import of Cosmetics Registration Certificates granted under the Rule 13 of Cosmetics Rules, 2020 as mentioned above in the name of M/s. Johnson & Johnson Pvt. Ltd., (Currently named as M/s. JNTL Consumer Health (India) Private Limited), L.B.S. Marg, Mulund (W) Mumbai, Maharashtra (India) – 400 080, is hereby cancelled with immediate effect subject to condition that the authorized agent in India shall be responsible for Quality, Safety and Regulatory compliance for the imported Cosmetic Products which are already available in the country, if any.

This is for your Information.

Yours faithfully,

(Dr. Rajeev Singh Raghuvanshi)
Drugs Controller General (India)
