PUBLIC NOTICE

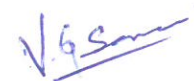

Subject:- Payment of fees through Bharatkosh Portal alongwith the application for grant of various licences/permissions, etc, under Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940 and rules made thereunder- regarding

It has been brought to the notice of this Directorate that the applicants are facing problems while paying fees through Bharakosh portal. It has been observed that Bharatkosh system takes 2 to 3 days for issuing the receipts in respect of the fees paid despite of the fact that the money is debited from the account of the applicant.

The matter was examined by this Directorate and in order to facilitate the payment of fees by the stakeholders, it has been decided that once the fees are debited from the account of the applicant in the Bharatkosh through Sugam portal, the concerned applicant can upload the following documents for further submission and processing of the application:

1. Proof of the amount debited from his account, and
2. Submit an undertaking that applicant has paid the fees and if not materialized as successful transaction towards payment of fees, the applicant will pay the fees again.

It may be mentioned that if the applicants uploads above documents, the application will be considered for further processing by this Directorate.
